SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 26, 1874.

An adjourned meeting of cotton manufacturing interests was held in Boston, yesterday, at which two million spindles were represented. It was agreed to reduce the production of the cotton mills one-third for three months from October 1. A meeting of the cotton manufacturers of New England will be held in Boston October 28, to take further action. The manufacturers' Committee at Providence, R. I., had a full meeting yesterday, and unanimously agreed to the reduction of one-third in the production of cotton fabrics for the next three months. A strong delegation was present from Fall River, and adopted the views of the Providence committee. Siatements were submitted showing that the prices of most cotton fabrics are below the actual cost of production.

The Board of Directors of the Western Lunatic Asylum, at Staunton, have elected Dr. Robert F. Baldwin, of Winchester, Superintendent of that institution, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Dr. Francis T. Stribling. The Vindicator says the new Superintendent is a physician of high standing in his profession, about forty-five years of age, and is a son of the late Dr. Stuart Baldwin. The salaries of the assistant physicians were fixed by the Board at $1,500, and that of the steward at $1,200.

NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—A special to the Tribune from New Orleans says the following documents were found among the State archives while Lieut. Gov. Penn occupied the State House, and they show how the Louisiana case was managed in Washington with a view of seating Mr. Pinchback in the Senate, and keeping Gov. Kellogg and party in power. The first is from E. C. Billings, a Republican law-yer, one of the counsel of Gov. Kellogg while the Louisiana case was before Cougress. WILLARD'S HOTES,

General hunton was born in Fauquier county, Va., on September 23d, 1823, and is therefore just fifty-one years of age. In early life he was surrounded with embarassments which necessarily limited his advantages for obtaining an education. But such as they were he improved them well. PRINCE WILLIAM COUNTY ITEMS. - From the Manassas Gazette.] - A dinner was given on Thursday last by the ladies at the new Methodist Episcopal Church, South, at Catlett's Station, for the purpose of raising means to figish the church building. The dinner provided was a most excellent one, and was presided over by the ladies of the neighborhood. The attractiveness of the tables, and the smiles of the lovely women, made the occasion one of great pleasure, which was enjoyed by quite a large attendance of gentlemen. A number of gipsies have been encamped on the old camp-meeting ground during the past week, and have been visited by many horse traders, and several swaps have been made, to the infinite satisfaction of both parties, we suppose. One of the gipsics was fined $2 by the Mayor yesterday for being drunk and exposing his person in the street. On Thursday of last week, as Mr. H. C. Deer, who has been visiting his friends in Fairfax, was driving along the turnpike, near Cub Run, the bolt that holds the coupling of the buggy broke, which frightened the horse, causing him to run away, throwing Mr. D. from the buggy and jojuring him about the head and face pretty severely. The buggy was also considerably damaged. Chicken cholera has broken out afresh and is thinning out yards at a fearful rate. There seems to be no preventive or remedy, and though a thousand and one are recommended, we have been unable to see the slightest effect that any of them have, except to basten the death of the victim. Our county seems to be perfectly serene on the subject of local politics, and not much disturbed about "any other man." The usual county convention will not likely be held, as there seems to be no opposition to our very popular and excellent Clerk of the County and Circuit Courts and assistants.

The cases were tried separately, and that of Wayne was first taken up.
Mr. H. Jennison, chief of the loan division.

Treasury Department, identified the original bond for $1.000, No. 7,406, in the name of John Van Zant, trustee for Mary A. Roseberry. J. W. Frazee, notary public, testified that he executed the transfer on the 4th of March, 1874, and that his seal was stamped on the bond; did not know the party who signed the name of Van Zant; there were four parties pre-Butler refers to a case before the Supreme sent when the transfer was made, one of them personating Dr. Van Zunt.

Dr. John Van Zant was shown his name on the bond, and testified that he did not sign it himself, nor authorize any one to do it; he was appointed trustee for the estate of the late Mr. Conway, and invested the money in registered bonds; placed them temporarily in the keeping of Mrs. Roseberry, with instructions to take good care of them.

Cross-examination: Witness, on the 4th of March last, was either in this city or in Falls Church, Va.; Is a brother to Mrs. Roseberry, one of the accused.

Joseph Creamer testified that Mrs. Roseberry introduced Wayne to witness as Dr. Van Zant; he identified Waye as the party who signed the name of Van Zant to the note. Other witnesses were examined, when the Court reserved his decision temporarily.

The next case called was that of Mrs. Roseberry. The same witnesses were again examined, and the testimony adduced was to the effect that Mrs. Roseberry went to the office of the notary public with the other parties and signed the bond for making the transfer. She also negotiated the sale of the bond.

The court also reserved its decision until all the cases were heard, and without proceeding further at 4 o'clock adjourned until this morn-

From out the New Jerusalem, The home of heaven's eternal King, With saddening but glorious news To some of earth to shortly bring.

The white-winged messenger of God, With silent swiftness softly sped; No earthly eye discerned the form That hovered o'er the sick one's bel.

He gently cooled the fevered brow; He stilled the throbbing, aching pain; He bore the tired one home to rest, To his eternal, glorious gain. To meet his broth r, gone before,

To sing the everlasting song; To meet his parents at the door, When they should join the heaven! ythrong. And though their hearts be saddened now With longing pain and yearning grief, The darkened cloud will thortly pass;

The night of sorrow will be brief. For Jesus mourned o'er Israel, And wept beside a lov-d one's tomb. He knows the human heart so well, He'il quickly come to cheer the gloom.

Then, mother, dry those falling tears, And, father, bid thy sighs to cease; Lone sisters, comfort take; he rests In Jesus' love, in perfect peace.

And when sad thoughts in anguish fly To thy departed treasured one, You need not turn them to the grave, But raise them to the glorious sun.

For, far beyond its brilliant light, Where Jesus' ransomed children live; Now freed from earth he feels and knows ow freed from earth no least and give.

The King of Kings can take and give.

Tribute of Respect.

At a late meeting of Excelsior Lodge, I. O. G. T., of Arlington, the following resolutions were Resolved, That in the death of Brother Patton, of Potomac Lodge, our cause has lost a noble advocate.

Resolved, That we, as brothers and friends, do deeply deplore his death, and tender our heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved family and Weep not o'er the dear one's loss, For he has but dropped his cross, To ascend to the realms of the blest, And in their presence sweetly rest.

Ague Conqueror; No QUININE, ARSENIC OR POISONS.

This is strong language, as Physicians and Chemists have for years tried to compound a preparation that would entirely cure Fever and Ague without the use of strong medicine, such as Quinine, Arsenic and other poisons injurious to the system. There is no case of Fever and Ague, Intermittent or Bilious Fevers, Congestive Chills, Night Sweats, Liver Complaints, &c., that this remedy will not cure at once and permanently. It purifies the Blood, Liver, Spleens and all secreatory organs so effectually that the Chills will not return during the season, even when persons have had them for years.

A Card.

The determination of my friends yesterday evening that my name ought not to be presented to the convention then in session, after the extraordinary action of that body in excluding the five regularly elected delegates from the Scott townshsp, in Fauquier county, imposes upon me a duty which I must perform. I announce myself a candidate to represent this Dis-trict in the next Congress of the United States. If the Republican party presents a candidate, will submit to the arbitrament of any Conservative convention that may be elected in accordance with the established plan of organization.
